Fitch Affirms Utmost International at IFS 'A'; Outlook Stable

20 JUL 2020 2:38 PM

Fitch Ratings - Frankfurt am Main - [publication date will be automatically inserted] Fitch Ratings has affirmed Utmost PanEurope dac's, Utmost Limited's and Utmost Worldwide Limited's 'A' (Strong) Insurer Financial Strength (IFS) Ratings with Stable Outlooks. All three are the main operating entities of the Utmost International Group.

A full list of rating actions is below.

KEY RATING DRIVERS

The 'A' IFS Ratings of Utmost International's main operating entities reflect the group's strong capitalisation and leverage, strong business profile and good financial performance.

Fitch expects deterioration in Utmost International's financial performance due to coronavirus, including increased credit defaults and rating migration on the investment portfolio over the near term. However, Fitch expects the impact of coronavirus, while material, to be manageable for Utmost International due to its strong capital position on which we place increased weight in our assessment of Utmost International's credit quality.

Utmost International's business profile is moderate compared with other European insurance groups. This reflects the group's moderate competitive positioning, business risk profile and diversification. Utmost International has a leading business franchise in the international life and savings market, focusing on servicing high net-worth individuals and multi-national corporates.

Utmost International has grown significantly in recent years, acquiring international and investment bond businesses from several European insurance groups. The operational integration of these acquisitions, which is under way, carries some execution risks. These are mitigated to some extent by Utmost International management's experience with similar acquisitions.

Utmost International's capitalisation and leverage is strong, underlined by an 'Extremely Strong' score under Fitch's Prism Factor-based capital model (Prism FBM) and strong financial leverage of 22% at end-2019. Utmost International is currently subject to group solvency regulation on an "other methods" basis by the Central Bank of Ireland at the holding company level and reported a strong implied group Solvency II (S2) Solvency Capital Requirement (SCR) ratio of 161% at end-2019. All three metrics are resilient against the impact of the coronavirus pandemic.

Utmost International reported very strong return on equity (ROE) ratios of 24% in 2019 and 16% in 2018. However, these were supported by gains from bargain purchases of acquired businesses. The group's pre-tax operating return on assets improved to 7% in 2019 (2018: 0%), reflecting the profitability of the acquired businesses as well as increased scale reducing the impact of fixed-costs. We expect profitability to be weak in 2020 and 2021 due to amortisation of the acquired value of in-force business (ViF), integration costs and the impact of the pandemic. In the medium- to long-term we expect ROE to be between 2% and 5%.

Utmost International takes on limited investment risk as over 95% of its technical reserves are for investment bond policies for which policyholder bear the investment risk. Assets backing its non-linked business are dominated by investment-grade bonds (61% of non-linked investments) and cash (33%).

Fitch views Utmost International's debt service capabilities and financial flexibility as strong. Based on 2019 financials Utmost International's fixed-charge coverage (FCC) was strong at 5x. Fitch expects Utmost International's FCC to be weaker in 2020 and 2021 due to the impact from the pandemic, but to improve to around 10x in 2022. Utmost International currently has no history of debt funding via capital markets and funding sources used to date are somewhat limited in diversification. However, Fitch expects Utmost International to be able to issue subordinated or senior bonds either via private or public listings. Oaktree, Utmost International's majority shareholder, is also a potential funding source.

Utmost International's 'BBB+' IDR is one notch below the implied IDR of the group's three main operating entities. Notching between the insurance operating company's and holding company's IDRs is a notch larger relative to the standard notching for a group solvency regulatory environment due to foreign earnings and/or capital being greater than 30% of the consolidated group total.

RATING SENSITIVITIES

The ratings remain sensitive to a material change in Fitch's rating-case assumptions with respect to the coronavirus pandemic. Periodic updates to our assumptions are possible given the rapid pace of changes in government actions in response to the pandemic, and the pace with which new information is made available on the medical aspects of the outbreak.

Factors that could, individually or collectively, lead to negative rating action/downgrade:

- A material adverse change in Fitch's rating assumptions with respect to the coronavirus impact.
- Significant negative developments related to the integration of the acquired businesses resulting in a material financial impact.
- Utmost International's implied group S2 ratio declining to 130% or financial leverage exceeding 30%.
- A weakened business profile manifested in a significant reduction in assets under administration could also lead to a downgrade

Factors that could, individually or collectively, lead to positive rating action/upgrade:

- A material positive change in Fitch's rating assumptions with respect to the coronavirus impact.
- A positive rating action is prefaced by Fitch's ability to reliably forecast the impact of the pandemic on the financial profile of both the European life insurance industry and Utmost International.
- A group-level net-income ROE of 9% on a sustained basis while maintaining an 'Extremely Strong' Prism FBM score and financial leverage of 25%.

BEST/WORST CASE RATING SCENARIO

International scale credit ratings of Financial Institutions and Covered Bond issuers have a best-case rating upgrade scenario (defined as the 99th percentile of rating transitions, measured in a positive direction) of three notches over a three-year rating horizon; and a worst-case rating downgrade scenario (defined as the 99th percentile of rating transitions, measured in a negative direction) of four notches over three years. The complete span of best- and worst-case scenario credit ratings for all rating categories ranges from 'AAA' to 'D'. Best- and worst-case scenario credit ratings are based on historical performance. For more information about the methodology used to determine sector-specific best- and worst-case scenario credit ratings, visit [https://www.fitchratings.com/site/re/10111579]

Fitch conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of Fitch's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of Fitch's ratings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information Fitch relies on in connection with a rating or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to Fitch and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its ratings and its reports, Fitch must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, ratings and forecasts of financial and other information are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, ratings and forecasts can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a rating or forecast was issued or affirmed.

A Fitch rating is an opinion as to the creditworthiness of a security. This opinion and reports made by Fitch are based on established criteria and methodologies that Fitch is continuously evaluating and updating. Therefore, ratings and reports are the collective work product of Fitch and no individual, or group of individuals, is solely responsible for a rating or a report. The rating does not address the risk of loss due to risks other than credit risk, unless such risk is specifically mentioned. Fitch is not engaged in the offer or sale of any security. All Fitch reports have shared authorship. Individuals identified in a Fitch report were involved in, but are not solely responsible for, the opinions stated therein. The individuals are named for contact purposes only. A report providing a Fitch rating is neither a prospectus nor a substitute for the information assembled, verified and presented to investors by the issuer and its agents in connection with the sale of the securities. Ratings do not comment on the adequacy of market price, the suitability of any security for a particular investor, or the tax-exempt nature or taxability of payments made in respect to any security. Fitch receives fees from issuers, insurers, guarantors, other obligors, and underwriters for rating securities. Such fees generally vary from US$1,000 to US$750,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent) per issue. In certain cases, Fitch will rate all or a number of issues issued by a particular issuer, or insured or guaranteed by a particular insurer or guarantor, for a single annual fee. Such fees are expected to vary from US$10,000 to US$1,500,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent). Fitch Ratings, Inc. is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as a Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organization (the "NRSRO"). While certain of the NRSRO's credit rating subsidiaries are listed on Item 3 of Form NRSRO and as such are authorized to issue credit ratings on behalf of the NRSRO (see <https://www.fitchratings.com/site/regulatory> (<https://www.fitchratings.com/site/regulatory>)), other credit rating subsidiaries are not listed on Form NRSRO (the "non-NRSROs") and therefore credit ratings issued by those subsidiaries are not issued on behalf of the NRSRO. However, non-NRSRO personnel may participate in determining credit ratings issued by or on behalf of the NRSRO.

ENDORSEMENT POLICY

Fitch's approach to ratings endorsement so that ratings produced outside the EU may be used by regulated entities within the EU for regulatory purposes, pursuant to the terms of the EU Regulation with respect to credit rating agencies, can be found on the EU Regulatory Disclosures page. The endorsement status of all International ratings is provided within the entity summary page for each rated entity and in the transaction detail pages for all structured finance transactions on the Fitch website. These disclosures are updated on a daily basis.
